

Technology Applications Student Competencies

Vocabulary (DRAFT)

Last updated on 11/8/05

Word	Third Grade Definition
Email Address	The location to which an email message is sent
Cell	Individual boxes within a spreadsheet where columns (A, B, C...) and row (1, 2, 3...) intersect
Column	A vertical section of printed text on a page, or a vertical line of cells in a spreadsheet or table.
Copyright	The exclusive legal right to reproduce, publish, and sell his/her created work
Database	A collection of data on a specific topic stored in an organized manner
Email	Electronic mail; messages that are sent and received by computers
Field	Individual categories of information (ex. First name, city, phone number, etc.) within a database record.
Graph	A graphic of numbers created from spreadsheet data; also called a chart
Home Page	The first page of a web site or first page when browser is launched
Layout	The way that text and images are arranged on a page
Navigate	The physical act of browsing the Internet or computer for information.
Record	All of the information listed for one particular item (person, place, or thing) in the database file
Row	A horizontal section of printed text on a page, or a horizontal line of cells in a spreadsheet or table.
Spreadsheet	An application program that arranges data into columns and rows, usually used to work with numbers
Tab Key	A key used to move from cell to cell in a spreadsheet
Web Address	The location of a file or web site on the internet
Web Site	A page or group of web pages on the WWW
Worksheet	A spreadsheet file
World Wide Web (WWW)	An Internet facility that gives us access to various web pages